Saturday 14 June

11.30am	On stage at the Eagle - ' Strolling thru Ulysses ' written and performed by Robert Gogan Free, registration essential via www.theeagle.ie
	Duration: 75/80mins - Over 16's only

Strolling Through Ulysses!* is a one-man show that tells the fun-filled story of Bloomsday - June 16th 1904—the iconic day on which James Joyce's Ulysses is based.

Given the burnished Victorian interior of the pub and Gogan's pitch-perfect balancing of narrator, actor and observer, it turned out to be a wonderfully bawdy experience – and one that certainly enlivened our dinner conversation afterwards. – The Irish Independent

2 pm	Gather at the Eagle to experience ' Drumcondra Joycean Jaunts ' Free, registration is essential via www.theeagle.ie

Join us for a delightful stroll through the charming gem of Sandycove, as we make our way from Lower Glasthule to Upper Glasthule, celebrating everything Joycean. Along the way, we'll be accompanied by a lively group of characters reciting poetry, singing songs, and sharing stories related to James Augustine Aloysius Joyce. A joyful atmosphere is guaranteed! Jollification is the order of the day

9.30 pm	Enjoy jazz and swing from the Amorim Trio at the Eagle
